Clarissa looked out of the taxi window at the wet road. It was still raining. She was looking forward to getting home after a busy and tiring week in Italy.

The taxi stopped outside the terminal(终点) and Clarissa got out. While she was finding some money in her purse, the driver took out her luggage. She picked up her suitcase and entered the terminal building. The British airways check-in desk was near the entrance. After checking in her luggage, she went to buy some magazines. Then she went through passport control and the security check (安检).

After waiting in line with other passengers, Clarissa walked down the corridor and onto the plane. Her seat was next to the window. While the plane was taking off, she closed her eyes, but when the plane was in the air, she began to relax. She pressed the button at the side of the seat, lay back and opened her eyes again.

Pin! The sound of the bell woke Clarissa from her dreams. "Ladies and gentlemen, we are now approaching Heathrow. Will you fasten your seatbelt and extinguish(熄灭) all your cigarettes?"

When the plane landed and came to a standstill, Clarissa saw that outside the sun was shining and the sky was clear. It was going to be a perfect day.

C (七选五)

Three Apples changed the world. The first one seduced(诱惑)Eve. The second one awakened Newton. 46 Here are some famous words from Steve Jobs to share.

On character

I'm the only person I know that's lost a quarter of a billion dollars in one year. 47

On good design

That's been one of my mottos — focus and simplicity. Simple can be harder than complex; You have to work hard to get your thinking clean to make it simple. But it's worth it in the end because once you get there, you can move mountains.

On his outlook

48 Going to bed at night saying we've done something wonderful, that's what matters to me.

On your working life

Your work is going to fill a large part of your life, and the only way to be truly satisfied is to do what you believe is great work. 49 If you haven't found it yet, keep looking. Don't settle.

On the importance of death

No one wants to die. Even people who want to go to heaven don't want to die to get there. 50 No one has ever escaped it. And that is as it should be, because Death is very likely the single best invention of life. It is life's change agent. It clears out the old to make way for the new. Right now the new is you, but some-day not too long from now, you will gradually become the old and be cleared away.

- A. It's very character-building.
B. The third one was in the hands of Steve Jobs.
C. This is not a one-man show.
D. And the only way to do great work is to love what you do.
E. And yet death is the destination we all share.
F. It's really hard to design products by focus groups.
G. Being the richest man in the cemetery doesn't matter to me.

Yang Li, a five-year-old girl living next door to me, very clever. Because she is not old enough to go to the school, she often asks me to teach herself to read, write and draw. She studies hardily and soon she learns a lot. One evening last month I was doing my English homeworks when she came to my house. She asked me how I learned English. "You would find English a bridge for so much knowledge," I said. She then wanted to learn English, either. She has learned many English words so far but her parents are very grateful to me.
