书面测试 (非选择题共 30分)

一. 阅读理解 (二) (共 5小题, 每小题 2分, 满分 10分)

阅读下面短文, 根据短文内容回答问题。

In November, 2015, China ended its one-child policy (政策) which started in the 1970s, and now every family can have two children. But what would be like growing up with a brother or a sister?

Most people see the good side of the policy. Children want to have brothers or sisters because there is someone else to play with. They can talk about interesting things and share their own stories with each other.

However, some parents worry that it will put a lot of pressure (压力) on food, education and jobs when they have the second kid. In fact, there is no need to worry. The US psychologist (心理学家) Kevin Leman said that the first child really wants to succeed. When the family has a second child, they are more relaxed. So the second kid is usually funny and creative.

61. When did China start one-child policy?

62. Can a family have two children from now on?

63. Why do children want to have brothers or sisters?

64. What do some parents worry about when they have the second kid?

Ⅷ. 书面表达(满分 10 分)

One possible version:

Everyone has a lot of dreams. Some people want to be rich, dreaming of becoming millionaires overnight. Others want to be famous, dreaming of suddenly jumping to great fame. I have a dream that one day I can be an English teacher.

What impressed me most was my first English class in Junior One. I was afraid to speak in front of class because of my poor English. I hid my head among the books and didn't look at my teachers' eyes. It was my English teacher who gave me a lot of encouragement. That day, she came to me and said to me softly, "I believe you can do your best in English. Let me help you." After that, I practiced hard and tried my best to speak English well. And finally I did a good job. From then on, I decided to be a teacher like my English teacher.

In order to make my dream come true, I will work harder and never give up. Not only should I practice my English hard, but also I will read more foreign English books to open my eyes and mind.
